Instead, he is now planning on going to Hawaii, taking two graduate school classes, and fulfilling his military obligation at "beautiful, sunny" Fort Pickett, Virginia.

Marlene Grullon said, "I plan to go to Canada for a few weeks to visit some of my family, and I'm also moving to a new house." Good luck with that, Marlene!

Mr. Shifano said he's going to Las Vegas and will relax and enjoy the long, hot summer days.

Rachel McPhearsen is going to the beach in Wildwood, New Jersey, a summer camp, attending a Relay for Life, and starting her new job.

Jennyfer Amancio is going to New York, amusement parks, and maybe the lake with her family. Miss Leonard plans to relax go to the beach. She also hopes to spend time with her friends.

Lastly, Andy Acosta is going to the Dominican Republic to visit his family, to the beach, to farms, and plans to hang out with his old friends there. He is also planning on spending time with his sick grandfather.

Whatever your planning this summer, the reporters and editors here in the Castle Caller hope that your break will be fun, safe, and memorable. See you in the fall!

Michelle Taveras is going a lot of places this summer. First, she's off to splendid Paris for a culinary convention, to the Dominican Republic for another convention and party, and to Miami to visit her dad and Disney World. Angel Rodriguez is going to Virginia to visit

We particularly would like to thank all the elementary and middle school teachers who helped contribute their views and opinions to our articles, the copy center for fast service on every edition, and Mrs. Rodgers for her help with the will.
