

"Major Taylor: Champion Cyclist"

- (1st) Copy the definition,
(2nd) sample sentence and
(3rd) make your own sample sentence)

1. adept Someone who is adept is very skilled and knowledgeable.

Terry is an adept gardener who grows prize-winning flowers.

2. aristocracy The aristocracy is a group of people who occupy a high social class of wealth or power.

Members of the aristocracy in France often lived in palaces.

3. collective A collective action is one that is taken by a group of individuals working together.

A collective cheer rang out as all the fans began to yell at once.

4. perseverance- Perseverance is a steady course of action, especially in spite of difficulty.

Despite struggling at first, Ty showed perseverance and succeeded.

5. prevail- When you prevail, you succeed or win at something.

Despite his injury, Gustavo was able to prevail during the rest of the season.

6. prominent- A prominent person or thing is important or easily recognized.

Albert Einstein was an important, prominent scientist of the 20th century.

7. spectators- spectators are people who are part of an audience.

The spectators watched players at the tournament with interest.

8. trailblazer- A trailblazer is someone who leads others into something new or unfamiliar.

Neil Armstrong, the first person to walk on the moon, is a trailblazer who is admired by many people.

"Major Taylor: Champion Cyclist"

- (1st) Copy the definition,
(2nd) sample sentence and
(3rd) make your own sample sentence)

1. adept Someone who is adept is very skilled and knowledgeable.

Terry is an adept gardener who grows prize-winning flowers.

2. aristocracy The aristocracy is a group of people who occupy a high social class of wealth or power.

Members of the aristocracy in France often lived in palaces.

3. collective A collective action is one that is taken by a group of individuals working together.

A collective cheer rang out as all the fans began to yell at once.

4. perseverance- Perseverance is a steady course of action, especially in spite of difficulty.

Despite struggling at first, Ty showed perseverance and succeeded.

5. prevail- When you prevail, you succeed or win at something.

Despite his injury, Gustavo was able to prevail during the rest of the season.

6. prominent- A prominent person or thing is important or easily recognized.

Albert Einstein was an important, prominent scientist of the 20th century.

7. spectators- spectators are people who are part of an audience.

The spectators watched players at the tournament with interest.

8. trailblazer- A trailblazer is someone who leads others into something new or unfamiliar.

Neil Armstrong, the first person to walk on the moon, is a trailblazer who is admired by many people.