

“Home of the Brave”
(1st) Copy the definition,
(2nd) sample sentence and
(3rd) make your own sample sentence)

1. adjustment- An adjustment is a change or a correction.

Starting at a new school in the middle of the year was a big adjustment for me.

2. chattering -When people are chattering, they are having a conversation that is hard to understand.

Some audience members were still chattering after the movie had started.

3. ember -An ember is a piece of wood or coal that doesn't have a flame but is burning.

Rosa made sure to put out the last ember before leaving the campfire.

4. mentor- A mentor is a counselor or teacher who helps someone with less experience.

Young volunteers often need a mentor who can guide them.

5. nomadic -People who frequently move about rather than live in one place are nomadic.

The nomadic people of Mongolia still move their camps several times a year.

6. rapport To have rapport with someone means to have a friendly relationship or understanding of each other.

The supportive coach had a great rapport with members of his team.

7. reunites- Something that reunites people brings them together again.

Our family reunites each summer with a special picnic.

8. sturdy- A sturdy object is strongly built and not likely to break.

Juan wore sturdy shoes to go hiking.

“Home of the Brave”
(1st) Copy the definition,
(2nd) sample sentence and
(3rd) make your own sample sentence)

1. adjustment- An adjustment is a change or a correction.

Starting at a new school in the middle of the year was a big adjustment for me.

2. chattering -When people are chattering, they are having a conversation that is hard to understand.

Some audience members were still chattering after the movie had started.

3. ember -An ember is a piece of wood or coal that doesn't have a flame but is burning.

Rosa made sure to put out the last ember before leaving the campfire.

4. mentor- A mentor is a counselor or teacher who helps someone with less experience.

Young volunteers often need a mentor who can guide them.

5. nomadic -People who frequently move about rather than live in one place are nomadic.

The nomadic people of Mongolia still move their camps several times a year.

6. rapport To have rapport with someone means to have a friendly relationship or understanding of each other.

The supportive coach had a great rapport with members of his team.

7. reunites- Something that reunites people brings them together again.

Our family reunites each summer with a special picnic.

8. sturdy- A sturdy object is strongly built and not likely to break.

Juan wore sturdy shoes to go hiking.