

TOPIC 2.4

The English in America

1. Starting in the late 1400's, English explorers sailed westward, hoping to find a passage to _____.
2. In 1497, _____, led an expedition that reached Newfoundland. He claimed the region for England. Dozens of other English explorers continued to search for a _____.
3. In the 1600's, England began building colonies along the _____ coast of North America.
4. In 1607, the English colonists built their first permanent settlement at _____, _____.
5. The colonists at Jamestown suffered from problems such as _____, _____, and attacks from the _____.
6. The people of Jamestown took steps to deal with their problems. In 1619, they formed the Jamestown _____, which became the first _____ in colonial America.
7. Another group of English settlers, the _____ landed at _____ in 1620. Today, this area is in the state of _____. Their ship was known as the _____.
8. Even before they came ashore, the Pilgrims wrote and signed a document called the _____. A _____ is an agreement, made by a group of people.
9. Many Pilgrims _____ at Plymouth, but _____ taught them how to grow _____ and _____ in the new land. Soon after, more Pilgrims arrived and the Plymouth Colony became known as the _____.

