

Spread of Industrialization

Topic 4.1

1. As the Industrial Revolution got under way, it triggered a ____.
2. When inventors developed ____ that produced large quantities of goods more efficiently, ____ fell.
3. Lower prices made goods more ____ and thus attracted more ____.
4. More consumers then further fed the ____ for goods. As the demand for ____ increased, industrialization spread.
5. The factory system and the advance of industry and also triggered a revolution in ____.
6. As production increased, entrepreneurs needed ____ and ____ methods of moving goods from place to place.
7. Some capitalists invested in ____, or toll roads. Goods traveled faster and these roads began to link cities and towns everywhere.
8. Other entrepreneurs had canals dug to connect ____ to ____ or to connect inland towns with coastal ____.
9. Engineers also built stronger and better ____ and upgraded ____ to help the expanding overseas trade.
10. By the mid-1800's, steam ____ and steam ____ made travel faster than ever before.
11. By the 1870's, ____ lines crisscrossed ____, ____, and _____. Railroad travel boomed.

Steam locomotives burned coal to produce steam and traveled overland on iron rails, allowing merchants to ship goods swiftly and cheaply.

