

The Shot Heard 'Round the World

1. In response to the Intolerable Acts, representatives of the colonies met in _____ in September of 1774. The meeting became known as the _____.
2. The delegates at the meeting agreed to support Massachusetts. They organized a _____ of British goods and urged each colony to arm and train its own _____.
3. Upon hearing of the meeting, King _____ decided to use force against the colonists.
4. General _____, the British commander in Massachusetts, planned a surprise march to the town of _____ to seize the colonists' _____ and _____ the leaders of the protests.
5. On April 18, about 700 British troops quietly left Boston under cover of _____.
6. Messengers, including _____, mounted their horses and galloped to warn the colonists.
7. The following day, on April 19, 1775, two battles took place between British soldiers and colonial militia in Massachusetts, at _____ and _____.
8. To many colonists, the fighting ended hope of reaching an agreement with Britain. Their war for _____ had only just begun.

"The Struggle at Concord Bridge"