

SIEGE of YORKTOWN

1. By 1781, the hit-and-run guerilla tactics used by _____ and _____ were successful in wearing down the British.
2. The British general, _____, decided to move his army to Virginia to rest. He set up camp at _____, a strip of land jutting out into the _____.
3. Washington knew he could _____ the British there. He rushed his army to Virginia.
4. French _____ under the _____ joined Washington in the march south.
5. Meanwhile, the French _____, under _____ arrived in the Chesapeake to trap the British by sea.
6. Cornwallis was _____. He could not get _____. He could not _____.
7. The British held out for _____ weeks, but finally, on October 17, 1781, Cornwallis was forced to _____.
8. After years of fighting, the British realized they could not win the war. In 1783, the _____ was signed. The war ended. The _____ were victorious.

A 600-man assault column led by Colonel Alexander Hamilton captured key Redoubt No.10 in a night attack. The British surrendered soon after.